Yellow Fever in Matamoras Creates Alarm in the South.

GREAT MORTALITY IN NEW YORK FROM THE HEAT.

Senator Hill not Expected to Live Through the Week—Full and Favorable Crop Reports from Various States in the West.

[illegible]

R. M. SWEARINGTON, Health Officer.

The following was sent to the president of the ... Board of Health at New Orleans:

There is no yellow fever ... but it is reported at Matamoras. Quarantine is established against Matamoras ... Rio Grande will be guarded ... state ...

R. M. SWEARINGTON, State Health Officer.

... Matamoras ... quarantine ... establishing ... the

There is much excitement throughout the state at the yellow fever in Matamoras and ... Brownsville. The disease is spreading.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 30.—A Laredo special says: Your correspondent has used every means during the day to obtain the facts about the yellow fever at Matamoras and Brownsville. It is definitely settled that an epidemic fever is raging in Matamoras, but the question whether it is yellow fever or not has not been definitely settled. The Matamoras doctors still term it bilious and malarial fever, but other physicians do not equally good judges declare it to be yellow fever. It is conceded by all that those dying show all the symptoms of yellow fever, even to the black vomit, and from other pertinent facts there remains but little doubt as to its real character. It is said that there are no cases in Brownsville, just across the Rio Grande from Matamoras, and Brownsville has quarantined against Matamoras with the object of confining the disease to the Mexican side. No deaths are reported to day.

The Matamoras Plague.

AUSTIN, Tex., July 30.—J. C. Happensett, surgeon U. S. army; post surgeon A. S. Wolf, A. T. Mallon, health officer at Brazos, and the health officer of Brownsville telegraphed to the state health officer to-day that they had carefully examined the disease prevailing in Matamoras and pronounced it a congestive type of remittent fever. The Matamoras doctors persistently maintain that it is a mild type of fever which yields rapidly to treatment by quinine. The mortality is one per cent. Private letters to the officers state that several cases of black vomit have occurred. Quarantine is rigidly enforced by both cities.

A Young Murderer.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—On the 7th inst. Guy Smith, a 12 year old son of Milton Smith, living in Kirkwood, in St. Louis county, quarreled with his brother Louis, and his father whipped them. The boys were milking the cows at the time, and after finishing Guy went into the kitchen, washed his hands, then went to his grandmother's room and got a shotgun, returned to the kitchen where his father was and emptied one of the barrels of the gun into his body, inflicting wounds from which he died in a few hours. Guy was arrested and last evening a jury returned a verdict of guilty and the child will probably be sentenced to be hanged. The verdict was a surprise and the case throughout has been a singular one and excited great interest. The boy is not 11 years old yet and has been a strange child from birth. His head is abnormally large and high and runs almost to a point like a cone. He has a quick temper and his physicians say always has been liable to water on the brain. He acknowledged on the witness stand that he meant to shoot his father and hurt him badly, as he (the father) had hurt him, but did not intend to kill him.

A Royal Suit.

BOSTON, July 29.—A suit is now pending in the supreme court of Massachusetts in which Leopold, king of the Belgians, is plaintiff, involving some $340,000. There is a bill in equity brought by the king, in his sovereign capacity, against Lion Barnard, a Belgian subject, and Henry Lee, Chas. Fairchild, Chas. A. Whittier et al., of Boston, the three latter being well known bankers and proprietors of the Union Safe Deposit Company. It is alleged Barnard fled from Belgium with funds belonging to the king to the amount of $170,000, and that he leased a vault from the deposit company in which he deposited large amounts of stolen funds. An injunction has been obtained to prevent Barnard from removing the contents of the vault.

Rich Mines Discovered.

NEW YORK, July 29.—A dispatch from Nutt, New Mexico, says: Great excitement is caused in this vicinity by the discovery of new deposits of extraordinarily rich silver ore at Lake valley, 20 miles from here in the Black range. In one shaft of the Sierra mine a vein of chlorides and horn silver 40 feet thick has been discovered and this week the influx of prospectors is so large that hostile Apaches, who committed numerous outrages here so late last year, have fled from their camps and gone over the border. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway has laid out a branch road from here to Lake valley and the rush to the new mining district increases daily.

Chicago Notes.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Through the stupid blunder of a ... not used to handling matters ... a rumor was set afloat this morning that Omaha was burning down. The only possible foundation for the report was a temporary obstruction of telegraphic communication by the burning of a switch-board in the Omaha telegraph office. The story was so widely circulated as to make this explanation proper.

Samuel Colville's sensational melodrama "Taken from Life," by Henry Pettit, was produced to-night for the first time in America, in McVicker's theater, and met with great success, the house being crowded to the doors and enthusiasm was very unusual. It will be produced in all the principal cities in the country in rapid succession.

Crops in the Missouri Valley.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—Heavy rains here and in different parts of Missouri within thirty six hours have done great good to all kinds of vegetation, and will be a special benefit to corn. Dispatches from various parts in Kansas note copious rain, which, its said, will make the corn crop safe in that state.

Republican's Dallas: The secretary of the board of trade reports the ... crop made in northern Texas and that it will yield fifty to seventy bushels per acre. There will be a large surplus for export. Cotton is in splendid condition.

Another Hypocrite Discovered.

FRANKLIN, Pa., July 30.—John G. Craft, cashier of the ... bank, is a defaulter to a large amount said to be ... one hundred thousand dollars. Craft lost heavily in the oil market and used bank funds to cover his losses. Stock holders are ready to meet all demands and business will continue. No run is likely. Craft is deacon in the presbyterian church and had the utmost confidence of the public.

Telegraphers in Council.

CINCINNATI, July 30.—Executive officers of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers of the United States and Canada and United Telegraphers of North America held a conference to-night and effected a ... consolidation ... sharp rivalry. The consolidated organization has a membership of from 3000 to 8000 and is strongly protected in its features.

Great Mortality.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The appalling mortality of the week—1,2..—is the largest in 11 years. To day's death is 218, one-third of the victims being infants ... 8 sunstrokes and 11 deaths from heat. ... sunstrokes occurred in Brooklyn. It is raining now. Thermometer 84.

A Bridge Accident.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—A bridge fell this afternoon with 100 persons on it, all of whom were thrown into the water and about 10 injured. One young lady, Mrs. Davis, will die. All had narrow escapes from drowning.

Prize Fight Arranged.

KANSAS CITY, July 30.—Andy Sweeney of Kansas City and John Hanley, of Denver, have entered into an agreement to fight by London prize rules for $500 a side within one hundred miles of this place the 1st of September.

Land Decision.

The secretary of the interior has finally decided the motion for a reconsideration in the matter of the rancho Corta Madera del Presidio, of California. Juan Read's heirs contestees. This motion was ... Secretary Kirkwood, who failed to render a decision and arguments have been made at great length upon the matter before the present secretary. After a thorough and exhaustive review of all previous proceedings and decisions in the cause, Secretary Teller has recalled the decision made by Secretary Schurz in 1881 and has awarded to claimants the land embraced in the Ransom Allardt survey, excluding, however, Berlin Island and another island occupied by the military reservation. The Ransom Allardt survey begins at a place at the southwest corner known as Solar, thence running ... to the entire boundary of the Presidio, the northern ... Richard bay ... and San Francisco, by several courses easterly, northerly and westerly to the mouth of Arroyo Point at the northwest corner of the tract; thence following up said arroyo to a point where it changes from nearly north and south to an almost due east and west course and thence southerly to the place of beginning. It includes an area of six thousand and thirty three acres and excludes several adjoining tracts of salt marsh tide lands and the peninsula known as Peninsula island and includes a small peninsula or island known as De Silva island. In his decision the secretary says that in his letter of May 28, 1873, Secretary Schurz laid down the general proposition that the statute of 1864 contemplated a full and final settlement of all questions touching the extent of private grants, on presentation of objections to the first survey under publication and that these after no objections could be filed against such decision under cover of objections to a reformed and ... survey, whether it be a corrected plat or a new one, and I am of the same opinion. Measured by this judgment the decision of 1872 (disapproving of the Matthewson survey) was final and conclusive, and the action of the land department upon the question of the quantity as fixed by the decree of the district court is equally binding in this department upon the United States and other parties in the case. The secretary goes on to say that he can not bring himself to the conclusion that mention of the amount in the original decree was more than a mere estimate. This conclusion, he says, seems to be demanded by every principle of justice and fair dealing toward grantees, some of whom for more than a generation have had their homes upon land excluded by the late ruling, and whose title is centered upon this spot. The decisions of December 21, 1879, and May 3, 1880, are accordingly revoked, and that of Commissioner Williams is affirmed with direction to correct the survey and plat accordingly.

Washington Notes.

Among the appropriations added by the senate committee to the sundry civil appropriation bill are the following: For a steam tug whistle at San Francisco, $8000; dry dock on Mare island, $50,000.

There is good reason to assert the report of the house committee on foreign affairs on the Chili-Peruvian investigation will not reflect on United States ...

The government has expressed ... willingness to arbitrate upon the Mexico and Guatemala boundary question.

Ex Representative Rice is spoken of as a probable successor of the late Minister Marsh at Rome.

The report that Joseph K. McCain is assistant attorney general ... It ... department. The fact that he leaves Washington to-night for an official trip to the Pacific coast to be gone several months may have given rise to the rumor.

The general impression is that congress at the latest will adjourn a week from to-day. It will be impossible to keep a quorum here even as long as that time, as a great many members of the house left yesterday, not intending to return. On the only vote taken yesterday there was but just a quorum. It is not expected there will be a quorum in the house after the middle of next week.

Some wonder is expressed that the Chinese in China should desire to return to their country through the United States in view of the passenger fare, which is exactly double what it is by direct ship to China, and the Chinamen all want to go by direct ship.

There was a special meeting of the cabinet to-day to consider the river and harbor bill. All members were present except Secretary Chandler. The bill was discussed and final action decided upon. Great secrecy is maintained as to the conclusion. There was an understanding between the president and his cabinet that nothing whatever should be divulged as a result of to-day's deliberations. One fact, however, is known in this connection, that the president will send a communication to the house of representatives on the subject Monday.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was reported to the senate by Allison to-day. It aggregates $26,764,606, an increase over the house bill of $1,768,000. Among the items of appropriation added by senate committee are the following: Payment to Cherokee nation of Indians $300,000 to purchase additional beef for Indians $ 60,000, for international monetary conference $25,000, life saving service, $10,000, to remove the bodies of Lieut. Commander DeLong and companions from Siberia to the United States $25,000.

Ingalls said the United States have three great arsenals in a great naval corps of skillful trained ... with great officers ... a great abundance of water. It had ... coast ... and ... vessels ... of which but 37 ... will be rendered effective ... in case of war. It had been said the condition of the navy was attributable to the parsimony of congress. A complete refutation of that statement could be found in the fact that since the war more than $370,000,000 had been spent upon the navy for which the country had to show only 33 effective vessels. The reason there was no navy was because the money that had been appropriated has been misappropriated and squandered. He was in favor of putting in this bill some limit which would prevent the extraordinary waste and profusion which heretofore prevailed, and in consequence of which the United States had only this beggarly account to show.

On motion of Hoar an amendment was adopted providing nothing herein contained shall deprive the secretary of the navy of his authority to order repairs to ships damaged in foreign waters.

Beck gave notice of proposed amendments reducing the appropriation for completing the Miantonomoh of $1,000,000 to $40,000, and adding a proviso that no further steps be taken for repair or completion of the four iron clads until further ordered by congress, and that a naval advisory board shall report to congress by the first of December 1882 as to the wisdom of such completion.

Logan gave notice of a proposed amendment abolishing prize money.

The senate ... the bill ... was passed over informally, and will be considered to-morrow.

Pending of the bill was concluded. The remainder of the committee amendments being adopted without discussion and the bill went over till tomorrow.

House joint resolution providing temporarily until August third for expenditures of the government passed.

Hawley and Allison offered a resolution amending the rules to amendments to general legislation placed upon the appropriation bill shall be in order. Referred and senate adjourned.

Miller of California moved to strike out the clause abolishing the grade of commodore; agreed to—yeas 27, nays 22, as follows:

Nays—Aldrich, Allison, Brown, Chilcott, Cockrell, Coke, Conger, Davis of West Virginia, Dawes, Frye, Hale, Harris, Hill of Colorado, Hoar, Jackson, Kellogg, Logan, McMillan, Morgan, Plumb, Pugh and Sawyer—22.

The amendment of Beck was adopted reducing from $1,000,000 to $40,000 the appropriation for completion of the Miantonomoh is launching the four other monitors and prohibiting completion of these four vessels without further orders of congress and directing a naval advisory report as to the advisability of their completion. Yeas 31, nays 17.

On motion of Butler the amendment was adopted striking out the clause providing for the condemnation and sale of such stores and supplies belonging to the several bureaus of the navy as shall be unserviceable, and inserting a clause directing the secretary of the navy to make report of such stores and supplies to congress.

After coming to an arrangement that a vote should be taken upon the bill at 3 o'clock Monday the senate adjourned.

THE WAR IN EGYPT.

The Sultan Refuses to Take Action on England's Demand Alone.

RUSSIA WITHHOLDS ASSENT TO THE ACTION OF A CONFERENCE.

DeLesseps and the English Becoming Embroiled in a Dispute about Suez Canal—General Wolsely Ill—Arabi's Strength of Position.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.

LONDON, July 30.—The Herald's ... correspondent telegraphs as follows: ... that reports of Arabi's intention to offer terms of surrender are entirely unfounded. Very little confidence can be placed in correspondents at Alexandria. All important probabilities are carefully hidden from them. At evening a party approached the forts at Aboukir this morning and ... Egyptians made ready to fire, but the English retired abruptly. The government has little information of the progress of Arabi's affairs and are not sanguine ... will surrender. The only terms will be banishment of himself and other ... disbandment of troops and punishment of all ... period of complicity in alleged massacre. Arabi sent a delegate yesterday to meet the British flag of truce, but haughtily declined to talk about surrender on any terms. They were most insulting to English officers and said they would resist to the bitter end and that Arabi had the whole country with him. The ... retired sneering at English professions and threats. There seems to be no foundation for the reports that Arabi acts hostilely to the interests of Europeans. Arabi is obviously playing a waiting game. The report that he took customs money at Alexandria is ... A telegram from ... a private party here bitterly ... reports ... Commander of the national army.

Gladstone's Government Shows Unexpected Strength—Attitude of the Manufacturing Interest.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The World's London cable says: The government of Mr. Gladstone is showing for the moment at least more firmness than was anticipated in any quarter. It seems at the present writing fully determined to prevent Turkey from obtaining the mastery in Egypt which the sultan would almost infallibly obtain should his troops once set foot in the khedive's dominions and I hear from very good authority that it will adhere to the conditions to which it alone invites Turkish interference, the maintenance of Tewfik Pasha as khedive and the suppression of his rebellious subject, Arabi Bey. Turkey, like every other power in Europe, has calculated on Mr. Gladstone's weakness and indecision as shown in the earlier stages of the Egyptian difficulty and now in England belief is general that the Boer story will be repeated. The strength of the government and the consequent vigor of its action are largely due to the unflinching support which it has received from Birmingham, Manchester and the other great ... interested in manufacturing. The feeling there is that if the supply of Egyptian cotton should fall in great losses will be inflicted on one of our most important industries, therefore, paradoxical as it may at first sight seem, the ... even a radical constituencies for an English protectorate of Egypt is hourly becoming stronger.

Turkish Intrigues.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Herald London cable: The British government is informed that intrigues are progressing between the Alexandria entourage of the khedive's government and the sultan, who is using especially Mussulman and religious influence to decide Arabi to declare that he will submit unconditionally to the sultan and will protect the Suez canal if the British forces are withdrawn, leaving the work of pacification for a Turkish contingent and thereby merely effecting a compliance with the decision of the conference. This plan is patronized by M. DeLesseps also. The deficiency of provisions and water is urged by the British government against the landing of Turks, until after a forward movement of the British which will be preceded by the occupation of Aboukir, Damietta and Port Said. Admiral Seymour and General Allison are equally of opinion that the position of Arabi is an easy one to turn but not to attack in front without heavy losses. There are the strongest hopes of an understanding between England and France to oppose an exclusively Turkish intervention, if M. DeFrey ... remains in office. Communications on the subject are frequent between Lord Lyons and the French minister of foreign affairs.

Destroying Forts.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Explosions heard here through the day were caused by the British destroying the cotton and powder magazines in forts. Two armed parties started to night from Alexandria station and Gabari goods depot to repair the railway ... on the Alexandria side at Mahalla junction. Cherif Pasha has arrived here.

Snubbed by the Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 28.—The sultan, replying to verbal representations of Lord Dufferin, British ambassador, requesting the immediate issue of a proclamation against Arabi Pasha, stated such a demand could be made by England alone. But it could proceed from a conference of powers in which case it would receive due consideration.

A Quick Denial.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—The sultan denies having received any telegram announcing submission of Arabi.

Assassins at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Osman Pasha, Ripki, and 26 Circassian officers implicated in a recent plot to assassinate Arabi Pasha arrived to-day from Constantinople having been summoned by telegraph by the Khedive. They were received with great ceremony.

Egyptian War Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—The fort at Gabari was destroyed this morning.

Fifteen thousand Turkish troops are ordered to proceed to Egypt this week.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Cherif Pasha visited the khedive last evening and then proceeded to his residence on Mahmoudieh canal.

The condition of affairs at Port Said is very critical. The conduct of De Lesseps is severely criticized. It is reported he is in daily communication with Arabi Pasha.

Nihilist Trials.

LEMBERG, July 29.—The trial of Ruthenians lately arrested for high treason in being connected with Russ-phile agitation in Galicia has been concluded. The jury found Naumovic, Cliz, a clergyman, P. ... an editor, Sypundar, cathedral chorister, and Halmchki, a shoemaker, guilty of disturbing tranquility and they were sentenced to terms of imprisonment of from eight to three months. The other prisoners were acquitted.

The French Cabinet Resign.

PARIS, July 30.—The ministry were beaten on the vote granting credit for the Egyptian expedition by a vote of 450 to 75.

Cabinet tendered their resignations but President Grevy asked them to transact business till their successors were appointed.

Russia Holds Aloof.

The Russian charge d'affaires has been ordered by his government not to attend any more meetings of the conference until he has received detailed instructions.

Miss Parnell Better.

DUBLIN, July 29.—Anna Parnell is slightly better this morning.

General Wolsely, Ill.

LONDON, July 23.—Sir Garnet Wolsely is seriously indisposed.

Commodore Shufeldt Interviewed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Among the passengers by the Arabic was Commodore Shufeldt. The Call will publish an interview with him to-morrow. He says the opening of Corea was his own idea in conception and execution. Two years ago he was authorized by the government to attempt the undertaking through the medium of Japan, but failed to obtain access to the proper authorities. Meantime events had so ripened in Corea that it became a comparatively easy matter to effect his purpose through the agency of China. Corea was ripe for a treaty, but preferred to begin with the United States because Shufeldt was personally known to Corea, and Corea knew they could get from the United States a liberal treaty excluding opium, of which they have great dread, and avoiding ... with religious questions. Corea intimates to other nations that an American treaty must be the basis of all theirs. A treaty has also opened Corea to China herself, which is one of the most important political events in her history for fifty years. The commodore thinks this has been accomplished without giving any offense to Japan. The commodore said he had received no ... notice of his recall though it was intimated to him while at Yokohama. The commodore expressed himself strongly opposed to Chinese immigration and could not consider restriction an unfriendly act towards China because the privileges of Americans in China were restricted to a few open ports and trade and travel in the interior utterly prohibited. He said since leaving China he had learned Li Hung Chang had written to the consul general at Shanghai asking if Shufeldt would return to China for the purpose of carrying out reorganization of the Chinese navy, as his letter to ex Senator Sargent had awakened the Chinese statesman to the absolute want of war in China and he wished to impress upon his own government the facts stated in the letter. The commodore was indisposed to enter upon discussion of affairs between the governments of the United States and China. He expressed the opinion that commercial relations between Corea and the outside world will not prove of great importance.

Steamer Collision.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Last evening a collision occurred in Mission bay between the Mexican gunboat Democrata and steamer Newbern. Both vessels were lying at anchor near each other when the tide turned and they began drifting. The Newbern commenced soon to swing rapidly toward the gunboat and when discovered a collision was unavoidable. One blade of the Newbern's propeller struck the Democrata beneath water line on the starboard side with great violence, piercing the hull of the warship when she at once commenced filling. The navigator of the Newbern immediately slipped his anchor and making fast to disabled gunboat, both steamers were run upon the mud flats where they are now lying. Had this course not been taken the Democrata would undoubtedly have sunk as she is now heeled over to starboard and half full of water. No person was injured by disabling of the Mexican gunboat, but the damage on the vessel is not inconsiderable.

A Terrible Fall.

Kate Hammond, a young woman, twenty years of age employed in the capacity of chambermaid at the Brooklyn Hotel, fell from a fourth story window last night to the ground, a distance of ninety feet. She was terribly mangled by the fall and her injuries are deemed fatal. It seems the young woman was in the room with one of the guests of the hotel named George Phillips under very compromising circumstances. The proprietor of the hotel suspecting she was in the room insisted upon entering, and the girl became so frightened that she foolishly attempted to escape by means of the telegraph wire which descended the building by the window. She had gone only a few feet, however, when she was unable to retain her hold on the slender wire and fell.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Deserter Arrested.

PORT TOWNSEND, July 28.—A man named Grant who deserted from the first cavalry at Vancouver was arrested here to-day by Marshal Fine while on his way to Victoria, B. C., and delivered over to the military authorities at Port Townsend.

A young doctor who found himself in a Dakota village without a dollar to pay a heavy board bill, concocted a plan by which a wandering tramp played the part of a smallpox patient and the doctor vaccinated the entire population of the town with some innocuous acid, at $2 each. The swindle was discovered too late, for the enterprising physician and his bogus patient skipped out with $300 each.

Old Scotch gentleman sitting in a Toronto car—a young lady enters and makes a rush for the topmost seat. The car starts rather suddenly, the young lady lands on the old gentleman's knees, blushing and exclaiming, "Oh beg your pardon." Old G——: "Dinna mention it, lassie. I'd raither hae ye sittin on my knee than standing on ceremony."—Scotch Humor.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

DALLAS, Or., July 29.—The case of young Knott indicted for murder in the first degree for shooting old man Frakes in the road near Nestucca, about three months ago, went to the jury last night. This morning they returned a verdict of murder in the second degree. Knott will be sentenced Monday.

"Sweet Curing Seeds" was the translation of the name given to Ayer's Pills by a high mandarin of China in his letter of acknowledgment and thanks to Dr. Ayer for having introduced them into the celestial empire—a very appropriate name. MONDAY MORNING, JULY 31, 1882.

THE CATTLE BUSINESS.

The high prices which eastern cattle-buyers are offering to the ranchmen of eastern Oregon are tempting many into a serious error. Fat steers are not going alone, but with them a great proportion of the producing herds. Heifers and breeding cows are being bought up by the hundreds, and a cattle man estimates that one-fifth of this class of stock in the country has already been sold. This is a great mistake. Prices it is true are very high, but the rise has been healthy and the increased value is permanent. While the meat-eating population of the country is rapidly increasing, the meat-producing sections are rapidly being converted into farms. The cattle ranges of Texas, though still great, have been seriously encroached upon within the past three years; the Colorado range, once almost the whole prairie surface of the state, and the great plains lying east of the Colorado, are filling up with farmers who crowd out the cowboys. Everywhere, even in our eastern empire, the grazing areas are becoming comparatively limited. And the demand for beef is as steadily increasing. Not only is its consumption greater in the proportion that population has grown, but it has become a more general diet. And so the high prices which are offered in eastern Oregon result from permanent causes and not from the special demand of a special year. The ranchman who sells his breeding cows sells the profits of their increase for years to come. And prices will certainly be higher in the future than now. The great and growing demand must be supplied, and eastern Oregon is now one of the best fields for that supply. Cattle-growers ought also, in their own interests, to improve the body of their stock. Not fancy and high priced breeds, but weight is wanted; and the cost of putting weight blood into a range is very light. The prospects for the cattle business in eastern and southeastern Oregon are excellent. Ranges there are broad and not adapted to general agriculture, and so not liable to be soon taken by settlers; and the business should be carefully guarded and improved.

NOT ISSUES BUT INTERESTS.

In estimating the value to the republican party of the work done by this republican congress, the most important feature is liable not to be considered. It does not lie upon the surface, but singularly is the result of action condemned by republicans as well as democrats. So little time has passed since our general election that it is yet fresh in the public mind that the strongest argument for Mr. George was that he had done well in gaining promises of large sums for the improvement of our rivers and harbors. The appropriation bill had not yet passed in the house, but Mr. George had well presented our needs and was in fair way to secure the sums wanted. Other arguments there were in plenty, but this was the great one and it turned hundreds of votes. So it is the whole country over. People condemn the river and harbor bill as a whole and do not hesitate to call it a "divide" and "steal," but its items as they apply to particular districts are approved by the people of those particular districts. And with that approval goes approval of the congressman who has "worked for us." In the bill now before the president scarcely a congressional district represented by a republican has been forgotten; and even if the bill should be vetoed, as it probably will be, the various representatives will have gained applause for having done their best and their reward may be looked for in the fall elections. Abstract issues do not so much influence the people as practical interests. Not with praises of the tariff commission act or the half dozen other acts of little or no value will the average candidate for re-election go before his people, but with explanations of his efforts to get for them a share in the river or public building divide.

A BRITISH CRITICISM OF OUR ARMY.

Mr. Archibald Forbes, the distinguished English writer on war and military affairs, has written an article for the North American, in which he says:

The superficial observer might carry away the impression that the American army bears a striking resemblance to the tadpole, in that it has a very big head and a very little body, were he not in the course of his casual reading to come across the fact that its annual cost to the country amounts to some $40,000,000.

Mr. Forbes makes a savage thrust at the extravagance of our military department by remarking that Germany maintains a regular army of 420,000 men at an annual expense of $52,500,000. Mr. Forbes saw, while traveling in this country, generals and colonels without number, and "a palace over against the White House, in which the American secretary of war and the American general of the army have their official headquarters, with which the lodging of no war department in the world can compare for spacious splendor," but he traveled far before he saw a soldier of the line. He can say nothing to convince the people of the United States that the true policy of the republic is not to train men at West Point to be officers, and keep the number of regular soldiers as low as possible, trusting to volunteer troops in the emergency of war. But he can say much to make them feel that there is gross extravagance in the expenditures for the army, although they would be unwilling to have the pay of officers and men reduced to a par with the wages paid to soldiers in Europe. Mr. Forbes also touches a tender spot when he points out the inferiority of our army in equipment and discipline. His article will help create a popular demand for the reform of our military finances and the improvement of the equipment and discipline of our regular soldiers.

IMMIGRANT PROTECTION.

Congressman Deuster and others who secured the passage of the immigrant protection bill are very much chagrined over the presidential veto, but do not propose to quit their efforts to secure a law to protect the helpless people who crowd the immigrant ships. An element of disgust in the matter is that the veto was given at the suggestion of Mr. Conkling and disgust has grown to contempt since it has become known that back of that suggestion there was a fifteen thousand dollar fee. Deuster has prepared a new bill to regulate the carriage of passengers at sea, which provides ample room for each passenger; that vessels shall be provided with separate berths for each passenger with liberal allowances of space between the berths; that vessels shall have ample provisions for light and air; that proper and wholesome food (described at length) be provided and served regularly; that two hospital rooms be provided; that discipline and cleanliness be enforced on the part of the crews of vessels, and that explosive freight shall not be carried. The comfort of women and children is provided for by a series of very excellent regulations. For violation of these regulations large fines are imposed. The promoters of the measure think that they will get it through this session or next and count upon passing it over the heads of Mr. President and Mr. Conkling, if it should be vetoed.

Ireland's climate is so damp that cereals do not thrive there, and but little wheat and rye are grown. The promise of the ordinary crops has been highly encouraging until within a few days, but heavy rains have damaged them, and their ruin is feared. It is possible that, should the rain immediately cease, the crops may recover and the harvest prove a generous one, but great apprehension is felt both in Ireland and in England. The calamity to Mr. Gladstone would be a severe one should the lack of food aggravate Irishmen to new attacks upon the government. But three-fourths of Ireland's 20,000,000 acres are devoted to agriculture, and but 5,000,000 can be tilled, 10,000,000 being used as pasture land. It is therefore about all that the 5,000,000 population can do, when crops are good, to obtain a living, and if the rain nearly ruins the harvest there will be danger of a repetition of the distress which brought Ireland into direct antagonism to the control of her people by England.

Egypt has about 5,000,000 acres of tillable land and 5,000,000 people to till it. It is well known that it is difficult under favorable circumstances to maintain a population upon an average of an acre of land per capita. Egyptian farmers have been compelled to pay a tax of $8 an acre on their land, and poverty has ground them down to a most pitiable condition. And now war has destroyed Alexandria, driven out of the country the Europeans who spent money so freely there, and turned aside the energies of a large part of the population from their usual employments. How can Egypt escape a famine under such circumstances? Already there is suffering at Alexandria, and the world's charity will be entreated in behalf of the survivors of that stricken city. It will be remarkable, even if the war is quickly brought to an end, if Egypt escapes a famine which will extend over its whole territory, and cause great distress among the people.

The new middle channel across the Columbia bar has filled in, and is now no better than when the work of scraping was commenced several weeks ago. The best efforts of the engineers, and the money subscribed by our people have gone for nothing. The drag made a wide furrow in the bar, deepening the channel two feet, but within one or two days the drifting sands poured in and destroyed the result of weeks of patient and costly work. Long-continued winds from the northwest and the operations of fishermen with their nets on the bar and in the bay were the factors in the damage.

Minneapolis claims to have added 20 per cent. to her population in the year 1881. In one industry, flour milling, that city now leads every other in the world. The combined capacity of her mills, running at full time, is 29,272 barrels a day, or 9,132,864 barrels a year —equal to the reduction of 45,000,000 bushels of wheat annually. Sixteen lines of railroad center in the city. During the year 1881 these lines added 2353 miles of new track, or one-fourth of the aggregate new mileage of the United States. It is claimed that the extent of fertile territory now tributary to this center exceeds the area of five states like New York.

A worse time than the present for hostilities in Egypt could hardly have been chosen. The annual rise in the Nile is now at hand, and will continue till October. Before the volume of water reaches its maximum the side canals are opened and the floods are drawn off to renew that fertility which is so dependent upon this irrigation. But if there is conflict over the land the granary of nations will be closed, for this irrigation will not do its work unless properly directed. It looks as though devastation and not productiveness would be the great end for which the native population and the invaders would strive for some time to come.

The Boise Statesman reports that during the last thirty days thirty miles of track have been laid on the Oregon short line. The road will reach Wood river within a month. It will scarcely reach Boise City this year, although new grading companies are constantly coming into Idaho territory to push work on the line.

The American Israelite says: "We take no stock in dreamland. The idea of the Jews returning to Palestine is no part of our creed. We rather believe it is God's will that the habitable world shall become one holy land, and the human family one chosen people."

CITY.

WORK ON THE MIDDLE CHANNEL ... [illegible] ... the work of scraping on the Columbia river entrance temporarily secured additional depth of ... at three feet, continued northwesterly ... set the current towards the scene of operations ... tended to fill up the channel as rapidly as scraping deepened it. The south channel has also been ... within the past month. Ebb tides have been very strong in the north channel, which showed ... work from one to two feet more depth than six weeks ago. The government engineers are of the opinion that when the northwesterly wind subsides, and the fishermen cease flattening the sands with their heavy nets, the river channel will cut a safe channel through the middle sands.

GILBERT GETTING BETTER.—At the trial this afternoon of Messrs. Hanson and Burke, charged with the robbery of money and valuables from Jacob Gerdes, the latter will be brought upon the stand to testify against his supposed assailants. Gerdes has been gradually improving during the past few days, both as regards health of mind and body; but what he has said concerning the alleged robbery has been kept secret by the prosecution, who have slowly drawn out from his gradually returning memory enough facts, as they believe, to enable them to hold Hanson and Burke to an examination before the grand jury. The trial begins in the police court at one o'clock, and will undoubtedly prove very interesting.

WRONG FIGURES.—A blunder in the types a day or two ago in a dispatch about the river and harbor bill made the fund for the lower Clearwater $54,000 instead of $5000; for the upper Willamette, $70,000 instead of $5000; for the Cowlitz river, $10,000 instead of $1000; and for expenses of board of engineers to examine in detail the mouth of the Columbia, $75,000 instead of $7500.

DEATH.—Samuel C. White, a painter, who had a shop on Washington street, near Fourth, died at St. Vincent's Hospital Saturday night after four months illness there. By his death his wife and five small children are left without means of support. They live under the hill south and west of the Fourth street railroad bridge.

MAHONEY'S MOANS.—Michael Mahoney and his wife, Johannah, have had several domestic quarrels, and last night Johannah made complaint at the police station that Michael had beaten her, and the latter was arrested and confined in the city jail to await his trial, which is set for this afternoon.

MILITARY PRISONER.—J. H. Calhoun, one of Uncle Sam's soldiers, arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, was in the station house last night, en route to Port Townsend, in charge of Lieut. C. H. Bonesteel.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce a decision in this court this morning in the case of Casteman vs. Jascalla—a suit for an injunction on account of the infringement of the patent for driven wells.

VISITORS.—Mr. J. F. Evans, special agent of the United States treasury department, accompanied by his wife and daughter arrived by the last steamer and are guests of Col. Dudley Evans.

WHY NOT?

From the Mistletoe—July 21st.

By the first of January there will be through rail connection between Portland and Missoula in Montana. That place is the centre of a large district where trade, already large is rapidly growing. Portland ought to control it and would doubtless secure the co-operation of the railroad in the effort to do so. Of course, when the Northern Pacific is completed, Montana will take goods largely and perhaps chiefly from Chicago and the east; but the interval may be made to afford a year's profitable business this way besides establishing relations of acquaintance and credit giving our merchants a permanent hold. The possibility is worth an effort.—Oregonian.

And why cannot Portland deliver goods at Missoula over six hundred miles of railroad to just as good, if not to greater advantage than can Chicago over fifteen hundred miles. Montana will always prove a lucrative market for California fruits, both fresh and canned, and how the eastern manufacturers of woolen goods are to succeed in shipping their products over fifteen hundred miles of road and then undersell the Oregon woolen makers only six hundred miles away, is an enigma we fail to understand. If the Oregon cloth makers allow the Montana trade to be taken from their grasp by rivals who span two and one-half miles to their one, they must indeed be a slow class. We are also in the habit of sending on to Chicago for seasoned lumber. The best builders send east for all their floors, windows etc. This trade naturally belongs to Portland and it certainly looks as if she should furnish us with these building materials.

ANOTHER BRANCH.

Michael Davitt Branch of the Irish Land League formed Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon a large number of our most respected and influential citizens of Irish extraction met at Hibernia Hall, over Major E. Cahalin's store, for the purpose of organizing the Michael Davitt branch of the Irish national and industrial land league, as the branch already existing has grown to such dimensions as to necessitate for the better accommodation of its numerous patrons and members the existence of more than one. The meeting was called to order by Mr. James Duffy, who after stating the object of the meeting, was unanimously chosen temporary chairman, with W. J. Corcoran as secretary pro tem. About fifty or sixty of the true sons of old Ireland, with that love of country so characteristic of their race, were present. A ballot being taken, the following were unanimously elected officers for the present term: President, E. Cumming; vice president, M. Casey; recording secretary, J. Nugent; financial secretary, C. Kelly; treasurer, M. Flannigan. Every member stepped to the front as the roll was called and deposited his mite, that it might do the most good where most needed. The Michael Davitt branch starts out with the most flattering prospects, containing, as it does, some of the best talent in Portland, not the least of which is the Rising Star Literary and Dramatic Association, the members of which almost to a man appear on the roll.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

AUCTION SALES TO-DAY.

Gilman & Co. sell this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, 347 Third street, between Market and Mill, the almost new furniture and carpets, affording an excellent opportunity for buyers.

Westman's circus was favored with a thousand dollar house at Astoria on Friday evening. The performance was so well patronized and gave such immense satisfaction that by request of many citizens the management consented to remain and give a ladies' and childrens' matinee on Saturday afternoon and another performance in the evening. This show is bound to succeed as it is under the management of the irrepressible Jim McCue, the California and Nevada opposition stage man. From Astoria they go to Tacoma, Olympia, Seattle and Victoria.

PERSONAL.—A. P. Armstrong, principal of the Portland Business College, returned on Friday from a month's absence from the city, during which time he has visited the business colleges at Sacramento, San Francisco and elsewhere. He assumes charge of the school again this morning, and is now no doubt prepared to do better work for his patrons than ever before.

On this page in the 2d column will be found the numbers drawn last night at Mellis Bros. & Co.'s. Each number entitles the holder to twenty dollars.

AN EYE WITNESS.

Wants to Know about the Title.

PORTLAND, July 30.

To the Editor:

Will you grant me a reply in your "People's Column" to questions of some moment to a few of your readers. I wish to visit Northern Pacific lands for the purpose of purchase. What kind of a title can I obtain to the land? Does the road acquire title to the adjoining lands as fast as built and can or do they then place it on the market? If not, and the land reverts to the government, or rather the title remained in the government, what security would there be in buying now? I plead total ignorance on the subject and would like enlightenment. P.

[Respectfully referred to the Northern Pacific land department for answer.]

A Suggestion Appreciated.

To the Editor:

Shake. I'm with you heart and soul on the steam whistle question. The church bell business I stand with tolerable equanimity; but if there was ever a nuisance which needed prompt abating, the ever recurring and long drawn out whistling of the river steamers is that same. Go after them and don't let go until a cessation of this annoyance is accomplished, and you will receive the thanks of a long suffering community and particularly of ISAAC.

DAYTON, W. T., NOTES.

[FROM THE OREGONIAN'S LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.]

DAYTON, July 28.

Harvest hands are very scarce everywhere.

A great deal of good farm machinery has been sold here this season.

Capt. Marshall, of Seattle, is visiting this country with an eye to investment.

The sawmills are all running to their fullest capacity and lumber is in great demand.

The new democratic organ, under the management of T. O. Abbott, will issue its first number next week.

The Western Union telegraph company have doubled their business here since they moved their office from the depot to town.

Fishing in Touchet never was better. Small boys catch an average of 100 trout per day and one can buy a "fairly mess" for 25 cents.

We will have a two-thirds crop in this vicinity, and a third more acreage than last year. Crops near Snake river in Garfield county are reported almost a failure.

Dayton boasts of a free reading room, public library, splendid steam fire engine, a nice engine house and council chamber, good council and mayor, and no house of bad repute.

No clue to the murderers of E. H. Cummings. His revolver was found loaded but not capped. It is thought the murderers got from $200 to $300. The Chinamen who were with him the day before are still there. This may remain a mystery like the Hale murder, three years ago, which was similar in atrocity.

Five brick storerooms have been built since the April fire and five more are under way, while preparations are making for the construction of four more, which will finish the rebuilding of the three burned blocks, with the exception of a 90x120 foot corner, which some enterprising man should purchase and put up thereon a commodious hotel—the thing most needed here now.

MINING NEWS.

Jacksonville Times.

Mining is almost entirely suspended.

It will take the Sterling Mining Co. two months to clean up.

Mr. Derickson and J. B. Egan have relocated the Poorman's creek ledge.

Derickson & Co. have some men engaged in cleaning out the Horsehead ledge on Williams creek, preparatory to prospecting it.

Work is steadily progressing on Kretzer & Miller's ditch running from Cantrell gulch to Farmer's flat, several hands being employed.

The report that the copper mines near Waldo have been bonded to Boston capitalists, or any one else, is emphatically denied from headquarters. Prospecting continues, but further than that nothing has been done with these mines.

The bed of the Klamath river is being mined more extensively than ever this season, and heaps of gold dust will be taken out. A company composed of Kanakas, most of whom formerly resided in this vicinity, own one of the best claims.

Frank Rodgers, who has been mining on Silver creek with his father and brother, informs us that their claim has been worked out with good results and abandoned. He showed us several fine nuggets of gold, the heaviest of which is worth $21.75.

There are half a dozen miners on Silver creek, Josephine county, yet, some of whom are doing fairly. McMullen & Johnson seem to have the best claim. As most of the diggings are very deep in that section, it will take capital to work them advantageously.

Ankeny & Co., are taking out rock from a ledge near Woodville, with the intention of having it fairly tested. The ledge has long been known about here as "the copper ledge," but it is said to assay well in gold and silver also. Mr. Hansen, superintendent of the Blue Gravel mines at Galice creek, has charge of the work.

The board met last evening and canvassed the vote for chief engineer and assistant, declaring A. E. Strang elected as chief and Owen D. Hatton as assistant. Exempt certificates have recently been granted to J. H. Albert, M. S. Chamberlin and John Smith, of Capital Engine Co. No. 1, and to T. O. Barker, of Alert Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1. The department is in splendid condition, the officers of the respective companies prompt and efficient, and the members ever ready and willing to perform their respective duties and labor earnestly for the honor of "first water." The city council has just ordered, direct from the manufactory, a fourth-class Silsby steamer, to cost about $9000, and a new fire bell to replace the old one, which was recently declared unfit for service. The department will claim the new bell, but which company is to have possession of the new steamer is still an open question, discussed good humoredly on all sides.

THROUGH TO MISSOULA.

Observations of Postal Inspector Simpson from Wallula Junction to Montana—Proposed New Arrangement of Mail Routes.

PORTLAND, July 29, 1882.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

As I have just returned from a visit to Missoula, Montana, on business connected with postal service, I propose to give a few comments on ... that ... of the country through which I passed.

I traveled from Wallula Junction, Washington Territory, to Cabinet landing, Idaho, by rail over the ... of the Northern Pacific railroad. At this point the road is on the south side of the river, and the crossing ... over ... where it ... Pend d'Oreille lake. Cabinet landing is a place of ... of ... a ... tenants at ... except to ... connected with railroad construction. After leaving Cabinet landing the line of road continues on the south side of the river to a point known as Thompson's falls. Here the road crosses to the north side of the river. The company is building a steamer at Rock island, a point about three five miles below the falls and about the same distance above Cabinet landing. It is intended to ply on the river from the island to the falls until the railroad passes that point. The freight is then to be hauled around the falls and taken to the upper river, which, ... I am informed, ... Mr. G. Cole, Esq., late postmaster at Portland, is constructing an excellent wagon road for the company. It runs along near the line of railroad, and is used in transporting supplies and materials for construction of road. I found it quite convenient to travel over myself in a two-horse vehicle. The railroad line, after crossing at the falls, passes along up the river to near the mouth of Jocko river, on Flathead Indian reservation, and there crosses over again to the south side and follows up the valley of Jocko almost to its head, and then passes over a low mountain pass into the beautiful Missoula valley. This valley is some fifteen miles in length, and from three to five miles in width, on the north side of the Missoula river. The town of Missoula is situated at the head of this valley on the north side of the river where it cuts through a range of mountains. I should take the population of the town to be about 1200. It is the county seat of Missoula county. It has a lovely location and, no doubt, in the near future will be an important point on the Northern Pacific railroad. I am of the opinion that it will continue to be, as it is now, the first town of any prominence after passing Spokane Falls going east. Of course there will be other small trading points on the line of the road. I will mention Rathdrum, formerly Westwood, and Sand Point, on Pend d'Oreille; and also Thompson's Falls will, no doubt, have some prominence as a business place. The town of Missoula has very many local advantages. It is surrounded by a rich farming country, and the near mountains are rich in valuable mineral deposits. Gold and silver ledges have already been discovered, and I was informed while there that fine stone coal had been discovered some three miles from the town. Fort Missoula, a four company post, is situated four miles southwest from the town of Missoula, on the south side of the Missoula river, and I must say that it tends very much to beautify the surrounding scenery. The soil of the valley is quite rich, and I think if properly cultivated would yield abundantly. The whole country from Thompson's Falls to Missoula abounds in the best of grass and fine water, and is excellent for stock-raising purposes.

The people of Missoula are highly elated with the prospect of a railroad to Portland. I was informed the merchants intended buying their winter goods in Portland—a commendable idea. I am of the impression that Mr. Hallet will be so far advanced with the road by the middle of September that hauling from the front to Missoula will be but a night job. I have already recommended through mail service to Missoula. It is at present going daily by rail on the Northern Pacific from Wallula Junction to Sand Point post office, on the Pend d'Oreille Lake. I have advised the establishment of a postoffice to be known as the "The Front, Northern Pacific, Pacific Division," and the appointment of a postmaster to travel with it. I have also recommended an office to be established at Thompson's Falls, and E. L. Shannon, Esq., who is located there, to be appointed postmaster. The steamer now in course of construction at Rock Island, when finished, which will be in a short time, can carry the mail from the front to the Falls, and then it is only about thirty-three miles from this point to Horse Plains postoffice, and from there to Missoula a distance of about eighty miles. There is a tri-weekly mail, which I have recommended to be extended from Horse Plains to Thompson's Falls. That, as you will observe, would complete the connection. There is at present daily mail service from the east to Missoula. Now, if connection is completed with this end of the line, as recommended, it will afford mail facilities to some ten thousand men who are working on the railroad between the front on this side and Missoula on the other. Of course, it will be but a short time until the mail can be carried by rail from Portland, Oregon, to Missoula, Montana. Then Star service can be dispensed with. Then the people of Oregon and Washington Territory can exchange their fine fruit and canned salmon with the people of Montana for their gold and silver taken from their mountain ledges. The fact is, we cannot too highly appreciate this great trans-continental highway, the Northern Pacific.

I confess I was very much surprised in passing over this great highway to find the country being so rapidly developed. There is another important item connected with this road, and that is when it is completed across the continent almost every mile of it will afford local traffic which will be immense in the aggregate. As to the quality of the road in point of location and construction so far as it has advanced, I am sure it is not surpassed by any railroad I have ever traveled over, and I have crossed the continent ten times by rail in the past twelve years. I consider it equal to any first-class road in the United States. But then, the well-established and enviable reputation of Mr. Hallet as a master railroad builder is fully sufficient to recommend the character of road he is now constructing. Respectfully, BEN SIMPSON, P. O. Inspector.

STATE JURISDICTION OVER NAVIGABLE RIVERS.

THE DALLES, July 25, 1882.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

In your edition of the 27th inst., after reporting part of a decision of the supreme court in Hansen ... wherein that court held that as to streams which are navigable only within the limits of a ... state the authority of its legislature ... complete. I would remark in substance that this doctrine is that any state may authorize obstruction to the navigation of any stream which is navigable ... within such state, and ... only the legislature of Oregon would have power to ... the Willamette river. The general doctrine as announced by the Louisiana court is not new, whatever may be said as to the application of that doctrine to the case before the court. But yet ... it does not follow as a consequence that this ... for the express purpose of avoiding ... embarrassments of this state authority, it has generally been a requisite to admission of new states formed out of territories in the west that, by a statute or other proper mode, the ... free ... obstructed navigation of their navigable streams should be secured. Such a condition was exacted in the case of Oregon by the act of congress admitting the state. W. L. H.

STATE POLITICAL NOTES.

The democratic organ of Lane has this: It is said that Hon. John Whiteaker, of this county, will receive the votes of the democratic members of the legislature for U. S. senator. This will be a high compliment to our fellow citizen, although his party is in the minority.

The Eugene City Guard says: "The hold over senators for the ensuing legislature were 9 republicans and 6 democrats, for the legislature of '84 there will be 8 democrats and 7 republicans. The democrats will have one from the republican county of Clackamas, while the republicans will lose one in Linn. Sure. The state senate of 1884 will be democratic." This is a pretty long count in advance.

Of Sigtin, democratic senator from Coos, who says he is going to vote for Mitchell, the Coast Mail (Marshfield) says: Siglin's business at Washington has puzzled some of his constituents not a little. He is a hold-over member of the state senate; the legislature elects a United States senator; Mitchell is a candidate, and Siglin's interview reads like that of a man who went to Washington to see Mitchell and "was seen" by Mitchell.

The Northern Pacific in Montana.

Deer Lodge, New Northwest, July 21.

Engineer L. S. P. Weeks, in charge of the Missoula division, was up this week looking over the work from the mouth of Blackfoot to Birney's and returned to Missoula yesterday. During the week about sixty teams and wagons and a large number of men, women and children from the Oregon Short Line have passed through Deer Lodge and have commenced work at Birney's station, working this way. One hundred more teams are near here destined for the same work. This party have eighteen miles to grade and they are already scattered out over several miles of road.

The well known mail contractor C. C. McCoy, is stocking the road and is going to run stages between "the Front" and Missoula.

Pat. O'Neil, who is laying the Deer Lodge extension track, told Frank Walker he would have three miles of track laid this side of Silver Bow Junction by Thursday evening.

Denies His Resignation.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 29.—W. C. VanHorn, general superintendent of the Canada Pacific, denies he has resigned.

A New Witness Wanted.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 29.—Ex-postmaster-general D. M. Key received a telegram to-day from General Brady requesting his presence at Washington at once, to testify in star-route cases. He probably will comply.

A Religious Duty.

MADISON, Wis., July 29.—Mecona Lake assembly, composed of several thousand people from the northwestern states, representing all denominations, to-day passed resolutions to the effect that it was the duty of religious people to advocate prohibitory legislation.

The Cumberland Strike.

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 29.—A committee of the new Central Co.'s miners to-day formally declined to resume work on the terms of the company's manifesto. The company thereupon ordered lumber shipped to Loraconing for barracks for foreign labor, and also ordered police to report at their mines early to-morrow, when contractors will begin.

Boston Budget.

BOSTON, July 29.—Sullivan, the pugilist, surrendered to the police to-day on old charges of assault and battery and profanity.

Thomas O'Leary, Timothy Breen and Wm. Gilligan, field hands, took refuge under a cherry tree in West Roxbury during a thunder storm to-day. Lightning struck and killed O'Leary and Breen, and knocked Gilligan senseless.

Fall River Notes.

FALL RIVER, July 29.—Manufacturers are discussing the advisability of giving their help two weeks recreation in August.

Spinners of the Slade mills have struck on account of dissatisfaction with the weight of boxes in which yarn is weighed. It is claimed the boxes are under weight. A settlement is probable.

Work of the Tariff Commission.

LONG BRANCH, July 29.—Tariff commissioners gave a hearing to-day to C. M. Boves, Jr., and Wm. Henry Arnaux of New York, representing the interests of dealers in foreign newspapers, magazines and periodicals. They represented the business as unjustly discriminated against by these foreign newspapers and magazines coming free through the mails under the postal union treaty when addressed directly to subscribers in the country, while coming in bulk to dealers here they have to pay an ad valorem duty of 25 per cent. They ask that newspapers, unbound magazines and unbound periodicals be put on the free list. Adjourned till Monday.

A Yellow Fever Scare.

LAREDO, Texas, July 29.—Advices from Matamoras, Mexico, are that yellow fever is rapidly spreading, and black vomit accompanies it. There have been a number of deaths in the past few days, and the disease is regarded as epidemic. Col. Hote, of the Mexican regular army, lost his wife and daughter, and is now dying himself.

A dispatch from Austin confirms the news above given, and says the state health officer there has notified New Orleans of his action, and will picket the Rio Grande with rangers if necessary.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional Notes.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The sub committee of house foreign affairs committee, which had the Peruvian investigation in charge, will present its report to the full committee. This report has been prepared by Chairman Williams, assisted by Mr. Rice of Massachusetts. Both gentlemen are very reticent as to the character of the report; but there is reason to believe it will not be damaging to the reputation of Mr. Blaine. The principal matters referred to in the report are the papers mysteriously missing from the state department, and the question whether any American minister or other official had anything to do with seeking to intervene between Peru and Chili in regard to any claims against either country. It is understood this last question is answered negatively; and in paving the way to this negative answer the report goes into the history of these claims and exhausts the correspondence of the state department for information bearing upon their relation to various efforts of interference by United States officials.

Chances of Logan's Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—On Friday, Representative Page, in speaking of Logan's bill in the senate to permit the passage of homeward-bound Chinamen across this country, said: "If the bill passes the senate it will never get through the house. If it comes here it might go to the speaker's table or be referred to the committee on commerce, of which I am chairman. If it goes to the speaker's table it will require either unanimous consent, unless a suspension of rules by a two-thirds vote is secured, to take it up; and it will never get either if referred to my committee. I will take care it never gets through the house." With regard to the object of the bill, Mr. Page said: "It was evidently intended by Logan at the request of his railroad constituency in Illinois. There is no necessity for these people's coming this way. Some of them did not pass through this country when going where they now are, and the attorney general has decided that under the 12th section of that bill they cannot be permitted to pass through this country. When we were preparing the second bill this matter was brought before us, and we could see no way to frame a bill that would permit their going through without destroying the chances of passing the bill."

The River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Two members of the cabinet said after adjournment that no action with regard to the river and harbor bill had been decided upon, and one then added that so far as he was personally concerned he really did not know and had no means of knowing what the president would finally decide to do with the bill. Members of the senate commerce committee who talked with the president upon the subject this afternoon came away with a strengthened conviction that the bill would be approved. Although they admitted no definite assurances had been given them, it is said by many well-informed persons that the president will sign the bill, but will avail himself of his discretionary power in regard to directing expenditure of the national moneys appropriated, or, in other words, to cause the expenditure of these funds only by the aid of the river and harbor [illegible] into the general fund of the treasury. It is also thought probable in the event of the adoption of this course formal notice to the house of the presidential approval will be accompanied with a statement of reasons similar to the message by which President Grant six years ago announced his intention to exercise the same discretionary power in regard to the river and harbor bill of 1876.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

English Weakness.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Should any concession be made to Arabi Pasha, the feeling of British troops will be extreme disappointment. Every officer and man is keen to be led against the enemy. The least sign of negotiation with rebels will disgust soldiers and much as it will shock the European colony, our soldiers are scorned by Greeks, Italians and French of culpable weakness in not shooting and flogging much more than they have done. We are warned that Europe will view us with contempt for showing so much mercy to Arabs. Even among the donkey boys and cab drivers are shown signs while arguing about fares that Europeans have ceased to be an object of terror to them. Even the fact that 14 men were flogged this morning and that rioters were shot this afternoon, seems nothing to the angry foreign element.

They blame the English for the weakness, and loudly clamor for more examples. Several Frenchmen assured me if they had been in power here ten times as many Arabs would have been shot.

DeLesseps Complained of.

PORT SAID, July 28.—Port Said is full of men-of-war. There is no interruption to traffic on the canal but the public feeling is one of indignation at the conduct of DeLesseps, in imposing measures for the safety of Port Said and the canal. He is believed to be in direct communication with Arabi Pasha. Europeans, including French subjects, are under DeLesseps' thumb, contemplate sending communication to the foreign office at Paris, complaining of his intrigues.

DeLesseps, believing that England aims at seizing Suez canal, continues to oppose every plan for assuring its safety. In an interview with the late governor, he said the khedive was simply a prisoner in the hands of the English and England's sole aim was to obtain supreme control of the canal. Yesterday he telegraphed Arabi Pasha saying that he had just sent a dispatch to De Freycinet telling him the khedive and agents of the powers were incorrectly informed as to the situation here; that the canal was in no danger, that he had prevented landing French and British forces, and that if the minister would make him the representative of France here he would insure the safety of European life and property and securing the canal. Arabi replied that he would provide for the safety of the canal so long as England respected its neutrality.

Egyptians Will Never Submit.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—The deputation from Kfar el Dwar consists of six members. Reports to the effect that they are bearers of a proposal for a compromise are untrue. On their arrival they declared England evidently meant to conquer the country, and the people were determined to resist to the last. The khedive and ministry refused to receive them as delegates, accepting their visit only as an act of homage. Arabi Pasha has written a letter to Ali Monbarak Pasha, stating that he (Arabi) is the only general in command of Egyptian forces, a provisional government having been formed at Cairo with a national assembly of three hundred members.

Carl Wright, acting British consul general, has issued a letter to foreign consuls asking them to send him the number of subjects of their respective governments now ashore, in order to calculate the quantity of water required.

Egyptian War Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—The dam across Mahmoudieh canal is very strongly made, and wide enough to admit passage of four carriages abreast. A portion is fortified with more than 100 guns, some of them being Krupp cannon.

DeLesseps has applied for and received safe conduct from Arabi Pasha.

At the execution of native criminals to-day, 500 Arabs, 100 unarmed Europeans and 50 armed native police were present. It was a private execution. A sheikh employed by the authorities exhorted the people to have no fear. After the prisoner had been shot a native tried to incite the crowd to violence, saying there was now an opportunity of cutting the throats of Europeans. He was promptly seized.

Money Wanted.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—The minister of finance yesterday summoned the meeting of officers at Galata bank and asked a loan for the purpose of defraying the cost of Turkish expedition to Egypt of 15,000 men, the number to be increased if necessary. The bank was offered as guarantee a lien on receipts from the next year's sheep tax. The war office is making large purchases for equipment of troops.

England's Anxiety.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—In conference Thursday representatives of all European powers assented to the proposal of Lord Dufferin that the sultan proclaim Arabi Pasha a rebel. Both yesterday and to-day Lord Dufferin sent Sandison, the secretary of legation, to the sultan to insist upon issue of this proclamation and declare it is absolutely impossible to withdraw British troops from Egypt at present.

Spain's Hand.

[illegible] July 29.—A circular from the minister [illegible] to Spanish representatives abroad [illegible] Spain's attitude on the Egyptian question [illegible] commented upon here. The hope [illegible] has arrived when the powers will recognize the claims of Spain to be consulted on all questions in relation to the Suez canal.

A New Phase of the Question.

LONDON, July 29.—A report was current in the house of commons last evening that the sultan of Turkey had made overtures to Great Britain looking to the latter's acquirement of Egypt on the same terms as those on which Cyprus changed hands.

The Situation at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Attendants of the delegates from Kafr el Dwar state there is great want of food in Arabi Pasha's camp and that many of the troops are tired of war. The delegates had an interview with the ministers lasting two hours. They said they had came to express the resolution of the whole country to resist foreign aggression to the end. A meeting of leading European merchants was held to-day, when three resolutions passed the first expressing want of confidence in the native police, second, expressing disapproval of free circulation of natives to and from the city, thus affording Arabi means of inflaming the passions of the people, and third, demanding that every native give proof of his means of subsistence. This last resolution is aimed at spies and emissaries of Arabi Pasha.

Capt. Fisher has constructed shore going ironclads on rails similar to those used during the American civil war. It consists of six trucks protected with iron shields with an engine in the centre and Nordenfeldt guns looking over the bows on the leading trucks. It is also equipped with three gatling guns and two field guns and will be mounted by three companies of blue jackets. The train is provided with mines of electric gear and all appliances for laying down or destroying rails. It will proceed to the railway junction within two miles of Arabi Pasha's lines and will seize and fortify that important point. I have just returned from a reconnoisance on the armor clad train. Very useful information has been obtained, but the expedition failed to obtain large results expected, owing to the train being stopped by a break in the line.

Germany Falls into Line.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 29.—The German representative was instructed yesterday, from Berlin, to recommend the sultan to issue a proclamation declaring Arabi Pasha a rebel, as demanded by England. Moukhtar Pasha has made arrangements which will enable the porte to despatch 20,000 men to Egypt in successive detachments.

Bombardment Postponed.

ALEXANDRIA, July 29.—Admiral Seymour will reconnoiter Aboukir fort to-morrow. There appears some doubt as to whether bombardment of the forts will take place, because it is supposed prisoners held by Egyptians are confined therein. A large powder magazine at Mekhaum from which it was said Arabi Pasha had recently taken stores has been blown up by British.

Davitt Arrived Home.

LONDON, July 29.—Davitt arrived yesterday. He was interviewed by a reporter of an Irish paper, and stated he would not fight the question of nationalization against peasant proprietary if there was the slightest chance of creating dissension in the land league. He said he would return to Ireland at once to put a spoke in the wheel of Kavanaugh's land corporation scheme.

Vote of Credit Rejected.

PARIS, July 29.—The deputies rejected the credit demanded by the government by a vote of 450 to 75.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—At the great council of Redmen last night revision of by-laws of the great council and constitution of subordinate tribes were under consideration and adopted as amended. A resolution to appoint a committee on honored dead was adopted on a rising vote. The finance committee reported receipts during the past year, $2460 54, disbursements, $1525. The estimate of receipts and expenses for the ensuing year was placed at the same figure, which leaves a balance of $935 in the treasury at the end of the year. A resolution to levy a per capita assessment of $1 on subordinate lodges to meet expenses as a per capita of 60 cents payable at the last of December and fifty cents at the last of June, 1883, was adopted. Davis, late mate of the Manzanita, has been promoted captain of the latter.

More Coolies.

An Irate Briton.

Captain Roper of the British steamer Anjerhead, who has been handled by the press of the city in a gloveless manner, and who refused some days ago to allow any reporter on board his ship, was waited upon last night by a representative of a morning paper. The irate Briton rose up from the table where he was devouring a joint of rare beef and sampling some Dublin stout, and without further explanation the reporter passed gently over the steamer's bulwarks, and in advance of Captain Roper's dangerously manipulated No. 9 brogan.

INQUEST ON E. H. CUMMINGS.

DAYTON, W. T., July 28.—Coroner Clark, of Columbia county, held an inquest on the body of E. H. Cummings, murdered at New York bar on Snake river, probably the night of the 25th inst. It was found he had been shot in the right shoulder, left hip, left shoulder, left hand and twice in the back of the head; throat cut and top of head, left lip and forehead badly cut with the head of an axe. Money purses were empty on the floor, but nothing else was molested. Four balls of about 38 calibre were found on the floor that had passed through his body. Part of the shooting was probably done through a hole in the door. No indication of a struggle was found. He had no enemies and had some money. No clue to the murderers.

Aids for Deaf Persons.

New York Tribune.

In a store window in Broadway, where a dazzling collection of spectacles, a variety of ear trumpets and several dozen opera glasses are displayed, a number of ordinary looking canes and a common place-looking umbrella stand in the corner. A placard affixed to one of the canes designates it as an aconstic cane. Another placard on the umbrella conveys the information that with the assistance of the acoustic umbrella a deaf person can hear conversation, when the person speaking is at a distance. A second inspection of the canes after reading the placards discloses the fact that they consist of bamboo sticks with a varnished black metal top and a very small horizontal piece for a handle.

A salesman in the store exhibited a cane to a Tribune reporter, and, twisting it in his hand, disclosed a row of holes encircling the black metal. Placing the small horizontal piece in his ear, in the easy and natural way that some men put the handle of a cane in the mouth, he assured the reporter that his voice was so loud that he could scarcely endure it. He then showed a small aperture through the horizontal handle. This connected with the ear trumpet ingeniously arranged in the top piece of the cane. The reporter then held the handle of the cane to his ear. It sounded as a sea shell would. When the salesman spoke his voice was increased several times in volume. The chief value of the invention lies in the fact that the cane or umbrella may be used without betraying the fact of the owner's deafness.

"It is wonderful," continued the clerk, "how much people dislike to admit that their hearing is defective. They come in and ask to look at ear-trumpets for friends. We know that they want them for themselves. People who are hard of hearing are just as nervous as persons who are near-sighted. If the wish to ignore deafness was not pronounced, ear-trumpets would be as common as spectacles."

"We have sold thousands of these," continued the storekeeper, showing a miniature silver ear-trumpet calculated to fit inside the ear. "They are popular because they can be used without exciting remarks."

Another miniature ear-trumpet was then shown, made from two metals, the union of which produced electricity intended to have vivifying influence on dead or dying nerves. These appliances for the relief of deafness are all costly. The canes are $25 apiece and the miniature ear-trumpets, $5 a pair.

The latest phase of Parisian suicide is to shoot yourself in a hack. It is apt to damage the linings of the vehicle so when a hackman now sees a man approach who looks kind of melancholy he says to him: "See here, if you merely want to kill yourself in this cab, I don't mean to let you get in." And if the melancholy man lingers to be a stranger and not posted, it breaks him all up.

Cautious.—"When you were last here," said the magistrate to the prisoner, "you promised me that if I released you you would go to work. Why haven't you kept your word?" "Judge," returned the victim, meekly, "I didn't want to be breeding any disturbance, and I was afraid if I went to work that I would get on a strike."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A rich deposit of nitre has been lately discovered on Burnt river, in Eastern Oregon, and Capt. George Ainsworth is negotiating for the property where it was discovered, and will likely become its possessor. A 9-year-old daughter of Mr. W. D. Prettyman, who resides on Mount Tabor, was in the barn pitching some hay to the cow with a hay fork, when she accidentally thrust one of the prongs into her foot, just above the great toe running through so that the mark could be plainly seen at the bottom of her foot. James L. Daley was given $450 by John Van Lanken to keep for the latter until such time as he should call for it. When that time came Daley put him off and finally denied the debt. Whereupon Van Lanken had Daley arrested and taken before Justice White, who, after examination, decided that the latter was guilty of larceny as bailee, and fined him $50. In default of payment Daley was committed to jail.

His death occurred before his wife could be informed of her husband's illness. The deceased leaves, also, two little children.

The Hall street M. E. church, at the corner of Hall and Sixth streets, has been entirely remodeled outside and in. A wing has been built on the south side, greatly enlarging the seating capacity of the church, and other improvements have been made. The church is made to assume an entirely new and attractive outside appearance by the erection of a neat and well-proportioned steeple surmounted by a plain, white cross. These improvements are an evidence of prosperity, and the edifice is now an ornament to that portion of the city.

A Chinaman living down on the Columbia bottom came to town Saturday and made complaint against Milton Sunderland, a young man, son of a well-known citizen of that part of the country, charging him with threatening to murder the complainant with a knife with which Sunderland attempted to slash his Celestial body into ribbons. Constable Simmons was sent down to arrest the young man. He voluntarily made his appearance before Justice Davis, and was permitted to go on his own recognizance to appear with his witnesses for examination at 10 o'clock to-morrow. Mr. Sunderland says that he has had a number of hogs strangely cut, and he suspected some Chinamen in the vicinity of doing the cutting. Meeting this man he questioned him relative to the matter, and the Chinaman's only answer was, "No sabe, no sabe." Mr. Sunderland took out his knife, and taking hold of the Chinaman, made motions with the knife down his body, to endeavor to make the Chinaman understand what he meant about cutting the hogs. The Chinaman did not relish being likened to a hog in that manner, and broke away terribly scared, and came to town and made his complaint.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Roseburg Plaindealer.

Mr. Ed. Blackwood, whose place is about twenty miles east of Canyonville, mysteriously disappeared from his home some ten days ago, since which time, although diligent search has been made, no trace of him can be found. Mr. Blackwood came to Oregon two years since, direct from New York city, where he had been employed by the government as a secret detective. He was accompanied by his young wife, and they established a home in the Elk creek country in the southern part of this county. Soon after the 4th he and his wife paid a visit to some relatives near Canyonville, and as he proposed having some business to attend to in that locality soon, it was agreed that the wife should make a prolonged visit while he returned home and arranged things so that they might remain away some time longer.

Not returning as soon as was expected, his wife became uneasy, and as the days increased her anxiety became so strong that she could not remain longer away, but returned home to find that home deserted. Every thing went to show that he had been gone nearly all the time since his return; the house, chairs, doors, dishes all indicated that he had only stepped out for a moment, and had never returned. His gun, pistols, money and clothing were all left in their usual places, and even the table remained just as he had taken his last meal. His absence has created considerable excitement in that locality, and diligent search is being made for him.

Twenty to twenty-five bushels to the acre is the prevailing average, and 25 to 30 is not uncommon. One field is reported to have nearly 55 bushels to the acre. Conservative and well-posed judges are confident the product of the state will be nearly or quite 35,-000,000 bushels.

A horsecar conductor was before a court the other day charged with assaulting his wife. It was shown in the evidence that he had knocked her with a fist and knocked her down. He seemed to defend the assault, but plead in extenuation that his wife was pocketing the fares, and he was driven to it by finding the fare. The judge said a man should be as lenient as he could with a woman, but he would not countenance her knocking down the fare.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

The Baynner mills are closed on account of scarcity of water and grain.

Owing to the dry season the Prospect Hill Farm in Umatilla county, will not harvest more than one-half as much grain—about half of what was sown. Hogs will be turned in to harvest the rest as the cheaper way on account of the shortness of the stubble.

Mrs. Elizabeth Emery, of Ochoco, Crook county, committed suicide on the morning of the 21st July, by taking strychnine. She died about half an hour after taking the drug. She was 36 years old and leaves a husband and six small children, the youngest but 4 months old. No cause for the act is known.

Pendleton Tribune: While digging a well on their ranch, at the head of Alkali canyon, the Harnesty brothers uncovered the remains of an animal which must have been at least ten feet high. The bones were exposed to the air or crumbled to pieces as soon as exposed to the air or disturbed, with the single exception of a shoulder blade and the bone next below it. The two together measured six feet, which would make the animal stand somewhere between ten and twelve feet. Two tusks about a foot long, and a couple of teeth, two inches across and seven inches long, were found with the bones. The whole was found lying in a bed of gravel, six feet below the surface.

The amount of county orders drawn in Linn county during the past year is $39,207 54. The amount drawn during the year ending July 1, 1880, was $30,437.87.

During the year ending July 1, 1879, the full amount received in the Linn county treasury was $92,236; the next year it was $82,043; the next, $101,471, and the year ending on the 1st of July, $100,437.

Benton: The crop in Polk county is more than average. The fall grain was never better, and by much the larger portion is fall grain. The early spring grain will, also, turn out well. Only the late grain is poor, which, fortunately, constitutes but a small portion of the crop.

Last Sunday, as I. Simpson and Miss Sabitha Morrison were riding in a buggy between Elk and Pioneer on the Yaquina road, their horse took fright and plunged over the embankment, dislocating Miss Morrison's shoulder in the fall. She also received several severe cuts about the face. Her companion escaped with only a terrible fright.

A company has lately been formed in Yamhill and Polk counties for mining purposes, who are confident that they have struck something pretty good. Quartz containing considerable gold has been found in large quantities on the Coast range near the source of the Yamhill. Poor specimens of it assayed $10 to the ton, but it is thought to be worth more than that. Besides this any amount of quartz with large quantities of silver or German silver is found.

The corn crop in Jackson county promises well.

A heavy frost occurred on Butte creek, Jackson county, on the 27th.

Dean & Co's mill at Mayfield, cut for the first six months of the present year, 6,555,728 feet of lumber.

The first depot building south of Roseburg will be put up at Greenville, work on which has commenced already.

G. W. Morris, of Jackson county, lost an arm in a sawmill last year, and last week he fell from a load of hay, breaking his collar bone.

John Hansen, a Russian Finn, who has lived on Coos river for about 12 years, has mysteriously disappeared, not having been seen for six months past.

Parker's mill is running on full time and cutting about 17,000 feet of lumber daily. Monthly this mill turns out about 400,000 feet of planed lumber. A pony saw is being put in, which will increase the capacity of the mill to some 20,000 feet per day.

A three year old steer died at Jack Givens' place on South Coos river, opposite Yoakam's one day last week, and 11 hogs died from the effects of eating of the carcass, and others were made sick and probably died. The steer is supposed to have died of murrain.

The barkentine launched at Marshfield on the 22d was named the C. C. Funk. She is 172 feet over-all, 152 feet keel, 37 feet 8 inches beam, 14 feet hold, measures 646 tons, cost about $35,000, will carry 750,-000 feet of lumber, draws 17 feet, and be ready for sea in about 30 days.

The new vessels being built at Parker's mill, Coos river, are gradually approaching completion and will be launched in about 60 days. Some eight men are working on her. She is ceiled, the deck beams are in and the planking is now being put on. This is a flatbottomed vessel, being built to carry 350,000 feet of lumber on a drought of 9 feet of water.

Frank Orrelll, of Walla Walla, is making preparations to commence manufacturing wine and cider. Last season he made and sold about 8000 gallons of cider of excellent quality and flavor. He buys the small, least salable apples from the different orchards in the country and employs men to grind them, superintending the work and clarifying the cider himself. This season he expects to make and barrel about 10,000 gallons. He uses his own grape crop and also purchases considerable quantities for wine making.

Palouse Gazette: Grading on the site of the new school house on the point overlooking town, in the southern end of the city, is progressing and the building will be under way as soon as the material can be secured. Before the fire it was the intention of the directors to build a $4000 house, but the levying of another tax at this time was not deemed advisable, and they have concluded to erect a house costing $1800, which will have funds to the amount of $400 for the purchase of desks, etc. This departure from original plans, though deplorable from the fact that Colfax needs a good school house, is rendered necessary in view of the recent heavy losses sustained by those on whom the tax would fall heaviest.

Dayton Chronicle: The great cry throughout this section now is for more laborers. Farmers are in search of harvest hands, and stand ready to pay wages in proportion to the increased price of wheat. Carpenters, bricklayers, and mechanics of every description are wanted in every city, town and hamlet. Projected improvements are awaiting more help. Railroad building is giving employment to thousands of men, who otherwise would be scattered throughout the country to meet the general demand. No one of either sex, who really wishes to work, need be idle. For the credit of Dayton be it said, there are few, very few loafers here. We have no use for drones in our busy hive; but all laborers, whether with the head or hands, are welcome.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their conditions become corrupted, their organization broken down, and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.
